

Call for Applications for 2021-2022
Fulbright Teaching Excellence and Achievement Program
(Fulbright TEA)

The U.S. Embassy in Kigali, Rwanda is pleased to announce the 2021-2022 competition for the Fulbright Teaching Excellence and Achievement Program (Fulbright TEA), a program of the U.S. Department of State's Bureau of Educational and Cultural Affairs (ECA), administered by the International Research & Exchanges (IREX).

Fulbright TEA brings international teachers to the United States for a six-week program that offers academic seminars for professional development at a host university. Participants observe classrooms and share their expertise with teachers and students at the host university and at local secondary schools.

Who is eligible for Fulbright TEA?

Applicants must:

- Be full-time high school teachers of English, English as a Foreign Language (EFL), Math, science, or social studies, including special education teachers in those subjects, at institutions serving primarily a local population.
- Have earned a Bachelor's degree or equivalent education.
- Have five or more years of full-time teaching experience.
- Be citizen of and resident in Rwanda.
- Earn a minimum score of 450 on the paper-based TOEFL or 45 on Internet-based TOEFL. This is tested after the initial selection and not required to submit applications.
- Demonstrate a commitment to continue teaching after completion of the program.

How to apply:

Interested candidates must apply online before February 28, 2021. Please consult the list of eligibility requirements above and then apply at: <https://fulbright.irex.org/> . For questions, please contact us by email at Kigalipublicaffairs@state.gov